2004 GARGIULO VINEYARDS “MONEY ROAD RANCH” MERLOT—NAPA

When you look at the label on the bottle, you can tell this is serious wine. Jeff Gargiulo’s lifetime in the business of farming is evident by his meticulous, single estate vineyards. The soil in Money Road Ranch vineyard emulates the prized Pomerol region of Bordeaux. This Merlot blends 4% Cab and features extremely concentrated berry fruit—blackberry and black cherry, specifically. It’s big and round, refreshingly dry and well balanced. You shouldn’t judge a book by its cover, but this wine is—to use a sports term—money!
